

CHETNA* Ahmedabad announces a 6 day Interactive Course

Children as Catalysts for Change

At the end of the course the participants would be able to:

Develop conceptual clarity on rights based approaches (children / young people), gender equality and life skills.

Enhance understanding on participation of children and young people through different approaches with special focus on Child-To-Child approach

Identify and prioritize issues, concerns and vulnerabilities concerning children and young people in their own country

Develop understanding on program management skills for planning and implementing evidence based strategies, monitoring and evaluation of the program

Design an action plan for addressing identified priority issues of children-young people in their own area-country.

Who would benefit from this course:

The course is designed for senior personnel from Government and non-government organizations with 5-7 years field experience of working with children /young people (between 6-18 years) in planning and management of programs based on Rights, health, education and development.

Methodology:

The interactive course will have a variety of teaching methods (seminars, group discussions, simulation exercises, case studies and lectures, role plays, mime, story etc) in order to stimulate interest and lively debates. In addition, there will be a planning exercise and a field visit, a practical exposure of working with children / youth.

Resource persons, having international experience of capacity building, research, material development, facilitators / practioners of child /youth focused programs will facilitate the course.

Dates: November 30 to December 5, 2007

Venue:

Samvaad Heritage Conference Centre, CHETNA, 3010, Desai Ni Pole, Khadia, Ahmedabad 380001, Gujarat State, India.

Language:

English. Participants are expected to be well versed with both written and spoken English.

Fees:

Non-Indian participants: US $ 1500 without accommodation and US $ 2000 with accommodation in Ahmedabad.

Indian Participants: Rs. 40,000/- with out accommodation and Rs. 50,000/- with accommodation (This covers the tuition fee and an exciting package of key resource material / handouts)

For further information please contact

Ms Minaxi Shukla, Course coordinator, CHETNA,
Email chetna@icenet.net

Website www.chetnaindia.org

*CHETNA is Ahmedabad based Non Government support organization whose mission is to contribute in empowerment of disadvantaged children, young people and women to gain control over their own, their families' and communities' health.